 1. Improvement Location Permits: Projects that are in full compliance with the applicable regulations shall be issued an Improvement Location Permit authorizing the project to begin. See Section 9.02: Improvement Location Permit for details about this process. This process section applies to the following zoning districts:

 2. Site Development Plans: Projects that are in full compliance with the applicable regulations and that meet the Site Development Plan requirements as determined by the Plan Commission shall be issued an Improvement Location Permit authorizing the project to begin. See Section 9.05: Site Development Plan for details about this process. This process section applies to the following zoning districts:

- B. Permanent Alteration to the Land: A project that involves permanently altering the topography, drainage, floodplain, or environmental features shall have the project reviewed for compliance with the Unified Development Ordinance. Projects determined to be in full compliance with the applicable regulations will be issued an Improvement Location Permit authorizing the project to begin. See Section 9.02: Improvement Location Permit for details about this process. This process section applies to all zoning districts:
- C. Temporary Use of Land or Structure: A project that involves establishing a temporary use or installing a temporary structure shall have the project reviewed for compliance with the Unified Development Ordinance.
 1. Residential: Projects determined to be in full compliance with the applicable regulations shall be issued an improvement location permit authorizing the project to begin. See Section 9.03: Temporary Improvement Location Permit for details about this process.
 2. Non-residential: Projects shall be subject to the Site Development Plan process as described in Section 9.01(A)(2): Site Development Plans.
- D. Special Exception Use: An application for a Special Exception Use may be filed for a land use classified as a Special Exception Use in Article 2: Zoning Districts for the subject zoning district. See Section 9.07: Special Exception Use for details about this process.
- E. Change to a Different Zoning District: An application for a Rezoning may be filed for a lot to be changed from its existing zoning district to a different zoning district. The Plan Commission shall utilize a specific public hearing to review the proposed change in zoning. The Plan Commission shall then forward a recommendation to the Shelbyville Common Council for final action. Approval or denial is the full discretion of the Shelbyville Common Council. See Section 9.10: Zoning Map Amendment for details about this process.
- F. Planned Development: An elective approval process for developments that include one (1) or more of the following:
 1. Mixed Use: Involve vertical or horizontal mixed-use,
 2. Unique Development: Significantly unique development designs, or
 3. Unique Geological Features: For land that has significantly unique geologic features.

This process allows the developer to propose a site-specific regulatory ordinance that partially replaces the Unified Development Ordinance to allow greater design flexibility, and that rezones the lot. Applications for Planned Development are reviewed and approved by a combination of the Plan Commission and Common Council, and approval or denial is the full discretion of the Plan Commission and Common Council. See Section 9.06: Planned Development for details about this process. This process section only applies to the following zoning districts:

See Section 9.04: Administrative Appeal for details about this process.
 2. Variance from Development Standards: An application for a Variance from Development Standards may be filed so that an applicable development standard may be partially or fully waived by the Board of Zoning Appeals. The Board of Zoning Appeals may grant a Variance from Development Standard upon making specific findings of fact, with or without, conditions or commitments. See Section 9.08: Development Standards Variance for details about this process.
 3. Variance of Use: An application for a Variance of Use may be filed so that a use that is not permitted in a district be permitted by the Board of Zoning Appeals. The Board of Zoning Appeals may grant a Variance of Use upon making specific findings of fact, with or without conditions or commitments. See Section 9.09: Use Variance for details about this process.
 4. Administrative Interpretation: An application for an Administrative Interpretation may be filed with the Zoning Administrator requesting an interpretation of a permitted use or special exception use when a very similar land use is being proposed, but is not specifically listed as either permitted or a special exception use.
- H. Subdivision of Land: An Application for a Subdivision of Land is necessary to divide a lot into additional buildable lots shall be required to be reviewed and approved by the Plan Commission. Divisions of a lot recorded at the Office of the Shelby County Recorder without being approved by the Plan Commission shall not result in buildable lots. Temporary Improvement Location Permit

9.03 Temporary Improvement Location Permit

This process applies to the following zoning districts:

- A. Applicability: A Temporary Improvement Location Permit shall be required prior to temporary construction, installation, addition, alteration, or relocation of a structure and prior to establishment of a temporary land use, except when the language in the ordinance clearly exempts the improvement.
- B. Cross Reference:
 1. Building Permit: A Temporary Improvement Location Permit does not indicate compliance with building codes. Concurrent to having a project reviewed for compliance with the Unified Development Ordinance some projects with a temporary structure will also have to be reviewed for compliance with the Building Code. The review for compliance with the Building Code is conducted by the Building Commissioner and is a separate process from the Improvement Location Permit.
- C. Filing Requirements: Application for a Temporary Improvement Location Permit shall be made on a form provided by the Zoning Administrator and shall be submitted to the Zoning Administrator during normal business hours. The applicant shall submit multiple copies of the application and materials if requested by the Zoning Administrator. Plans or illustrations filed as part of an application shall be drawn to a scale sufficient to permit a clear and precise understanding of the contents of the plans and of the proposal being made.
- D. Permit Procedure:
 1. Substantially Complete Application: An application for a Temporary Improvement Location Permit shall not be reviewed for approval until it is determined to be substantially complete by the Zoning Administrator. The Zoning Administrator shall first verify that the application form and any required supplemental information has been submitted correctly, and the applicable application fee is paid.
 2. Review the Project's Compliance: After the application is verified as being substantially complete, the Zoning Administrator shall review the project to determine whether it complies with the Unified Development Ordinance. The Zoning Administrator may consult with any other person, department, or group to determine if the project complies with all of the provisions of the Unified Development Ordinance. During the review process, the Zoning Administrator may:
 - a. Request Additional Information: During the process of rendering a decision, the Zoning Administrator may request additional information deemed necessary to determine whether the project complies with the Unified Development Ordinance.
 - b. Exercise Discretion: Some provisions within the Unified Development Ordinance allow the Zoning Administrator to apply discretion to a decision. If such discretion is exercised, the Zoning Administrator shall describe the decision and cite the authority for that discretion.
 - c. Interpret the Unified Development Ordinance: Because the Unified Development Ordinance cannot address every possible unique situation, project features, or land use, the Zoning Administrator shall interpret the intent of the Unified Development Ordinance when a situation is not specifically addressed.
 3. Render a Decision: The Zoning Administrator shall render a "decision to deny" or "decision to approve" based on the information submitted, project review, discretion exercised, and interpretations made.
 4. Issuing a Temporary Improvement Location Permit: If the proposed project complies with the Unified Development Ordinance the Zoning Administrator shall render a decision to approve, document the terms of the approval on the permit, and then issue a Temporary Improvement Location Permit. The Zoning Administrator shall also issue a placard to the applicant. The placard is to be posted in a conspicuous place on the subject property for the duration of the temporary use or structure.
 5. Decision to Deny: If the proposed project does not comply with the Unified Development Ordinance, the Zoning Administrator shall not issue a Temporary Improvement Location Permit. The Zoning Administrator shall document the reasons for not issuing a Temporary Improvement Location Permit and send that information to the applicant by e-mail, U.S. Mail, or telephone. If an e-mail is used to communicate denial, documentation that the e-mail was received shall be included in the file. Similarly, if a phone call is used to communicate denial, documentation of the phone call shall be included in the file. If the Zoning Administrator renders a decision to deny an Improvement Location Permit the applicant may promptly revise the application, or may promptly pursue relief from the Unified Development Ordinance.
 6. Allowance for Revision Prior to a Decision: Not applicable.

Temporary Improvement Location Permit

7. Allowance for Revision After a Decision to Deny: After a decision to deny, the applicant may promptly revise the site plan, application form, or attachment in order to comply with the Unified Development Ordinance without terminating the process.
8. Pursuit of Relief: After a decision to deny, the applicant may promptly pursue an administrative appeal or Variance from Development Standards. During an appeal for relief, the application for Improvement Location Permit shall be suspended until the Board of Zoning Appeals rules on the matter.
- E. Duration: When a Temporary Improvement Location Permit is issued, the following duration standards apply:
 1. Procedural Expiration: An application shall expire and be void after the applicant is notified of a decision to deny unless the applicant makes revisions to the application or files and appeal with the Board of Zoning Appeals within thirty (30) days from notification.
 2. Commencement: After a Temporary Improvement Location Permit is issued, the permit shall expire after the last approved date for the temporary use and/or structure.
 3. Permit Expiration: A Temporary Improvement Location Permit shall be issued for the dates requested by the applicant and within the ordinance limits as described. The permitted dates shall be displayed on the Temporary Improvement Location Permit and placard.
 4. Extensions: Not applicable.
- F. Modification After Issuance of a Temporary Improvement Location Permit: Not applicable.
- G. Record of Temporary Improvement Location Permit: Records of Temporary Improvement Location Permits shall be kept on file in the Plan Commission Office for the period as specified by the Indiana State Code and shall be available as public record.

 - b. The Zoning Administrator that is the subject of the appeal shall transmit the documents, plans, and papers constituting the record regarding the case to the Board of Zoning Appeals.
 - c. The Zoning Administrator that is the subject of the appeal may provide a written report explaining the final decision or action on the case.
 4. Review: The Board of Zoning Appeals shall hear the Administrative Appeal at a regularly scheduled public meeting according to their Rules and Procedures. The Board of Zoning Appeals may consider information conveyed to them in writing and testimony during the hearing in making a decision.
 5. Decision: Following the hearing and review, the Board of Zoning Appeals may affirm or modify the decision, interpretation, order, determination, or action from which the appeal stems. The Board of Zoning Appeals may also add conditions to its decision when warranted.
